CHICAGO DIRECTORY

Gives Windy City 2,367,000 Bas- ed on 1900 Estimate.

HOST OF FREAK NAMES

Johnson Family Leads the List With The Smiths Fighting Hard For Sec- ond Place—Freak Names of Ani- mals, fruits, birds and royalty names.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—The Chicago di- rectory for 1907, which will be published today, gives figures estimating the popu- lation of Chicago at 2,367,000. This estimate is based ultimately upon the United States census of 1900, which gave Chicago a population of 1,688,575. The same rate of directory names total popu- lation that was established at that time is used this year. The total number of names in the directory alphabetical list is 737,400, an increase over last year of 21,300 names.

As has been the case for several years the Johnson family leads with 6,549 names, not including the Johnston class, of which there are 454. The Smith tribe follows with 4,877 and Schmidt 1, 278, Anderson third with 4,441 and An- dersen 374.

The shortest names in the directory are Ek and Ex. There are ten of the former and six of the latter. Among the names commonly known as jawbreakers, the following are samples:

Zeyss and Szyszkiewicz.
Royalty is well represented with three Czars, 185 Kaisers Three Sultans, and hundreds of Kings, Queens and Princes.

With this array of royalty there is a court nobility of numerous Dukes, Earls, and Barons, 16 Marquises, one Don, 48 Barons and a large number of Knights. Several geographical and locational names appear, such as Land, Water, Mountain, Jerusalem, Hell, Pole. Natu- ral history is represented by three Deer, two Elks, five Lions, five Moose, twenty- five Bears, 529 Foxes, 612 Wolves and one Cat.

The feathered tribe has a list of seven Ducks, one Chicken, eight Chicks, 24 Eagles, 4 Pigeons, one Parrott, 25 Par- rotta, three Pelicans, 39 Partridges, eight Doves, one Snipe, 11 Storks and 125 Birds.

Two persons boast the name of Mule. Among the fruits and flowers are 32 Lillys, 410 Roses one Tulip, 15 Lemons, 13 Apples, 14 Plums, eight Peaches, five Pears, one Raspberry, one Quince and two Melons.

There are 16 Prays, two Amens and ten Songs.

COMMISSION TO EUROPE.

As a Result of Recent Criticisms Investi- gations Will be Made Across Sea.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—As a result of criticism in the trade organizations in regard to the recently negotiated trade agreement the Treasury Department, it is believed here, has made arrangements for sending a commission to Europe to study export and other conditions as they effect foreign merchandise shipped to the United States.

The commission will be comprised of J. B. Reynolds, assistant secretary of the Treasury; Marion DeVries, presi- dent of the Board of United States gen- eral appraisers and Judge Byron White also of the customs department. Ac- cording to recent plans they will leave New York September 15.

Since the export concessions were granted to Germany many trade bodies have inaugurated an energetic cam- paign claiming that the granting of "Export prices" as a basis for settling ad valorem duties in place of "Foreign market values," as provided in the present law is tantamount to allowing the German manufacturers and ship- pers the privilege of introducing their products at their own prices.

Remedy for Diarrhoea—Never Known to Fail.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diar- rhoea Remedy. I have used this prepa- ration in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I can not say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jemison, Spring Grove, York County, Pa. This remedy is for sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

That is the watchword. That is what cleanses and stimulates the bowels without irritation in any form. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

INSANE BARBER.

Had Been Shaving Customers While De- mented But Did No Damage.

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 8.—Scores of Des Moines men learned yesterday how close a shave they have had in the last few weeks when the insanity commis- sion found that J. Warren, a barber in a West Side barber shop, has been crazy for months. Warren was arrested in the shop yesterday afternoon while shav- ing a customer. His wife had sworn out charges of insanity. The man was led away from his patron and locked up in the county jail.

He told the insanity committee that a band of negroes with two big blood- hounds had been on his trail for months and that his wife also had been making trouble for him. Warren was taken to the asylum.

What One Enjoys.

At Otto Sund's pretty and cozy resort "The Commercial," one finds all that the inner man desires in the refreshment line and of the best quality too. To pass a little time in such a neat place and spend it in pleasant conversation with genial friends, probably a little business talk, is, to say the least, en- livening. Courteous treatment is an- other thing that is appreciated and one receives it from Otto himself who takes charge during the day and from his pleasant night manager both of whom dispense the best to be had. "The Com- mercial," 500 Commercial street, is well known and widely patronized.
